

Special Machines • Injection Molding • CNC and Micro Machining

Job Description: CNC Lathe Machinist – Night Shift

Burger & Brown Engineering, Inc. is seeking an experienced CNC Lathe Machinist. This position would be responsible for programming, setup, and operation of CNC turning centers.

Burger & Brown Employees enjoy:

- Positive and encouraging work environment
- Career Development
- Competitive benefits package including:
 - o Health
 - o Dental
 - o Vision
 - o Vacation and Sick Leave
 - o Paid Holidays
 - o Company-matched 401(k) program

The CNC Lathe machinist duties would include:

- Developing programs using MasterCam for new parts
- Develop fixtures and processes for production of parts
- Continuous improvement initiatives of existing and continuous parts
- Ensure work area is clean, secure, and well maintained
- Participate in safety training and shop meetings
- Consistent communication with peers in department and management
- Follow established processes and quality and safety standards.

Job Requirements include:

- Must be detail oriented.
- Must be self-starter and driven.
- Must communicate well through verbal and written skills. Transfer of details and important instructions are key to this position.
- Must have good attendance and punctuality
- Must be able to read and interpret drawings and follow routers.
- Must be able to lift 50 pounds.
- Must have at least 5 years' experience operating precision CNC machines.
- Must be certified to work for all U.S. companies.

Preferred Experience includes:

- Experience programming 4th axis/Live Tooling machines and parts.
- Experience with Fanuc controls
- Experience programming in MasterCam

All employment offers are contingent upon a pre-employment drug screening.